

Counselling All Nations Services (CANS)

CANS is a registered charity (Charity No. NIC 100444) our work began in September 2013 and we are currently based in rented offices in The Chinese Welfare Association. CANS was set up as the only Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) charity to respond and provide culturally sensitive counselling (in English or a common minority ethnic language) to adult people living and working in Northern Ireland whose first language is not English. CANS provides assistance in a safe and welcoming environment.

Volunteer Position – Bilingual Counsellor

We are currently recruiting qualified Bilingual Volunteer Counsellors and final year counselling student to help us deliver our client work.

For further details, please contact:

Lekan Ojo-Okiji Abasi

Mob — Text name and number: 0759-613-9247

E-Mail — cansinfo@counsellingallnations.org